The Saskatoon Blades recorded their fourth consecutive win, and first ever triumph at two-year-old Mosaic Place in Moose Jaw, as the Bridge City Bunch dumped the Warriors 5-2 Wednesday night. After giving up the first goal, the Blades scored the next four goals on the way to moving into sole possession of second place in the East Division and sixth place in the Eastern Conference. Adam Kambeitz, Josh Nicholls, former Warrior Shayne Gwinner, Shane McColgan and Matej Stransky scored the goals as Saskatoon out-shot Moose Jaw 35-22. The 17-14-1 Blades return home to host Swift Current Friday and Kootenay Saturday at Credit Union Centre.
